MEET CELESTE

Celeste is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in German and Music, with a minor in Psychology.

One summer, Celeste received a grant that allowed her to perform research in Germany. She used the experience to craft an honors thesis.

As a violinist, she performs in Penn State's Philharmonic Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra, as well as for numerous local festivals, orchestras, and shows. Celeste has served as a member of the Peers Helping Reaffirm, Educate, and Empower Club and the National Society of Collegiate Scholars, as well as the vice president of Encore, a THON organization.

Celeste received the Marjorie Jane Brewster Memorial Scholarship, the most prestigious scholarship awarded by the Penn State School of Music.
