

Global and International Studies

MEET WILLIAM

William is majoring in Psychology and Global and International Studies with minors in Sociology and Economics.

He previously spent the summer studying abroad in Cape Town, South Africa, and interned with Ikhaya Le Langa, a nonprofit organization that works to reverse the legacy of apartheid in Langa, during his international experience. Throughout his internship, William established a Youth Enterprise Program aimed at introducing the youth of Langa to the foundational aspects of entrepreneurship.

At Penn State, he serves as an advanced facilitation coach for World in Conversation, a center for public diplomacy in the College of the Liberal Arts that hosts cross-cultural dialogues. William is also a family leader for BLUEprint and an ambassador for the Multicultural Resource Center Leadership Council.

To read more student stories, visit LA.PSU.EDU/CHANGEMAKERS

PennState
College of the Liberal Arts

Global and International Studies

Unique Learning Opportunities

- The opportunity to put your existing experience and education into a global perspective

Enrichment Experiences

- Internships in a range of areas depending on your interests, including international development, foreign affairs, public health, community development, and more
- Engaged Learning Projects

Study Abroad

- Penn State offers more than 400 study abroad programs to allow students to tailor their experience to their interests. A complete list can be found at global.psu.edu/students.

Multiple Pathways

- Culture and Identity
- Health and Environment
- Human Rights
- Wealth and Inequality
- Global Conflict

Possible Career Paths

- Foreign Service
- Foundations
- Human Resources
- Logistics
- Business Development
- International Recruiter
- Study Abroad Director

To learn more about the major, visit
GLIS.LA.PSU.EDU.

