MEET AARON

Aaron is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in History and Italian.

He is an Italian language tutor through Penn State Learning. Around campus, Aaron is also a member of the Penn State Italian Student Society; Gamma Kappa Alpha, a national Italian honor society; and Phi Alpha Theta, a national history honor society.

One summer, Aaron participated in the Penn State Reggio Calabria Education Abroad Program. He spent more than a month in Italy taking classes and going on field-study excursions to the main cities and cultural centers in Calabria and Sicily.

In his spare time, Aaron is a culinary apprentice for East Food District at Findlay Commons on campus and enjoys playing tennis.

To read more student stories, visit LA.PSU.EDU/CHANGEMAKERS
Italian

Unique Learning Opportunities
- No previous Italian study necessary to complete the major
- Courses in cinema studies, children's literature, Italian American culture, the theory and practice of translation, and Italy in its global contexts

Out-of-Classroom Experiences
- Gamma Kappa Alpha, national Italian honor society
- Self-designed honors options
- Peer tutoring
- Italian Student Society
- Earn your laurels with an Italian capstone project
- Network with Italian program alumni

Internships and Career Paths
- International business
- Diplomacy and governmental relations
- The arts
- Education
- Translation
- Journalism and publishing

Education Abroad
- Nine long-standing programs in northern, central, and southern Italy
- Homestay options, which allow students to share a residence with locals
- Penn State offers more than 400 education abroad programs to allow students to tailor their experience to their interests. Learn more about education abroad in the College of the Liberal Arts at la.psu.edu/education-abroad.

This publication is available in alternative media on request. Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status. U.Ed. LBS 22-244