Hope is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in Philosophy, with a minor in English.

Hope studied abroad in France and worked in the University Libraries on campus. She is also a founding member and president of Philosophy in Conversation, a student club she created as a comfortable space to discuss philosophy in an interdisciplinary context.

She is interested in making philosophical topics and conversations accessible to people of all backgrounds. After she graduates, Hope plans to pursue her doctorate in philosophy.

“My Liberal Arts education has given me an interdisciplinary approach to philosophy, which will help me stick out from other graduate program applicants.”

To read more student stories, visit LA.PSU.EDU/CHANGEMAKERS
Philosophy

Unique Learning Opportunities

- Socially-engaged learning
- Ethics training applied to a variety of fields and professions

Out-of-Classroom Experiences

- Compete for prestigious student awards for academic excellence
- Join the Philosophy Club and participate in discussions and events with outside speakers and fellow students
- Join the Philosophy in Conversation club

Education Abroad

- Access to department-supported travel funding
- Penn State offers more than 400 education abroad programs to allow students to tailor their experience to their interests. Learn more about education abroad in the College of the Liberal Arts at la.psu.edu/education-abroad.

Multiple Pathways

- Bachelor of arts and bachelor of science
- Students may select one of the following six options: general philosophy; humanities and arts; philosophy of science and math; social sciences; professional studies; and justice, law, and values

Internships and Career Paths

- Education
- Law
- Medicine
- Public service
- Journalism
- Business

To learn more about the major, visit PHILOSOPHY.LA.PSU.EDU.