

Russian

MEET WILLIAM

William is a Paterno Fellow and Schreyer Scholar majoring in Russian and International Relations.

William works as a Russian language tutor at Penn State and serves as the president of Penn State Students in Russian.

In addition to his involvement with the Department of Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures, he is also a volunteer with Project Mexico, an organization that builds homes for some of the most impoverished families in northern Mexico. William is a Phi Eta Sigma Honorary.

To read more student stories, visit
LA.PSU.EDU/CHANGEMAKERS

PennState
College of the Liberal Arts

Russian

Unique Learning Opportunities

- Combine language studies with exploration of Russian culture, literature, history, cinema, and politics
- Take a course specifically designed for heritage speakers of Russian
- Opportunities to take introductory courses in Ukrainian and Polish to expand knowledge of the Slavic world beyond Russia.

Enrichment Experiences

- Tutor other students in Russian
- Become a member of the Russian Club
- Attend weekly Russian Tea and Conversation Hour

Study Abroad

- Participate in short-term faculty-led programs to Russia and post-Soviet countries
- Summer and semester programs in St. Petersburg offered through Penn State
- A great number of opportunities for studying Russian language and culture in Russia and post-Soviet countries (Georgia, Kazakhstan, Lithuania, Uzbekistan)

Multiple Pathways

- Easy to combine with other majors: History, International Relations, Computer Science, Music, and more
- Integrated Undergraduate-Graduate Program (IUG) with the School of International Affairs

Possible Career Paths

- Government
- Graduate Studies in Slavic Languages and Literatures
- Information Technology
- International Business
- International Relations
- Professional Translation
- Publishing
- Teaching
- Travel Industry

To learn more about the major, visit
GERMAN.LA.PSU.EDU/SLAVIC.

PennState
College of the Liberal Arts