

What can I do with a major in LINGUISTICS

Linguistics majors develop a broad range of skills that prepare them for career paths in a variety of industries!

JOB TITLES

Common job titles for Linguistics majors:

Speech Language Pathologist
Strategic Initiatives Coordinator
Communications Analyst
Research Project Manager

Web Content Writer
Academic Editor
Instructional Designer

INDUSTRIES

Common industries Linguistics majors work in:

Government Law Enforcement and Intelligence Education
Research International Business Healthcare
Writing Communications and Media

Transferable Skills

Communication Skills

Critical Thinking

Organizational Skills

Research and Analytical Skills

Creativity

Employers

Employers who hire Linguistics majors include:

- ✓ Apple
- ✓ JPMorganChase
- ✓ EY
- ✓ Dell Technologies
- ✓ Google
- ✓ U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs
- ✓ Universities
- ✓ United States Marine Corps

GET STARTED

- Research career paths of interest and seek to gain the skills, experiences, and degrees necessary to work in that field.
- Develop international competency and skills by studying or interning abroad.
- Get involved with the international community on campus by joining student organizations and attending events.
- Conduct informational interviews with or shadow professionals to learn about various work environments.
- Join related professional associations as a student member.
- Meet with a Liberal Arts Career Coach!

