

What can I do with a major in MEDIEVAL STUDIES

Medieval Studies majors develop a broad range of skills that prepare them for career paths in a variety of industries!

JOB TITLES

Common job titles for Medieval Studies majors:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Business Intelligence Analyst | Art Historian |
| Communications Coordinator | Curriculum Designer |
| Librarian or Archivist | Curator |
| Volunteer Coordinator | Professor |

INDUSTRIES

Common industries Medieval Studies majors work in:

- | | | |
|-------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------|
| Business | Communications and Media | Medicine |
| Education | The Arts and Museums | Law |
| Nonprofits | Government and Politics | |

Transferable Skills

Written Communication

Critical Thinking Skills

Analytical Skills

Attention to Detail and Organizational Skills

Problem-Solving Skills

Employers

Employers who hire Medieval Studies majors include:

- | | |
|------------------------------|---|
| ✓ PNC Bank | ✓ U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs |
| ✓ Accenture | ✓ American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) |
| ✓ Universities | ✓ Penn Libraries |
| ✓ Northwestern Mutual | |

GET STARTED

- Study or intern abroad in to gain international experience.
- Build relationships with faculty to secure strong recommendations.
- Get involved in campus organizations and seek leadership roles.
- Obtain related experience through internships, part-time jobs, and volunteering.
- Conduct informational interviews and/or job shadowing experiences with professionals to learn more about career fields and to build a network of contacts.
- Meet with a Liberal Arts Career Coach!

